

As a one-woman business, I value obtaining affordable Internet service from an independent ISP such as Sonic.net, and BellSouth's request would badly affect my business with regards to my available choice of Internet Service for broadband.